Important Update:CPPC Membership Fee Adjustment

Dear Esteemed Members of the College of Professional Pilots of Canada (CPPC),

Today, we share news that marks a pivotal moment in our journey together. After a careful and thoughtful review, we have decided to adjust our membership fees from $60.00 to $80.00 for all CPPC members. This is our first increase in 12 years, and we want to explain why this step is not only necessary but also beneficial for all of us in the long run.

Understanding the Change:

The modest increase, representing about a 2.7% annualized adjustment over the last 12 years, is a response to the realities we face: inflation and the rising costs of providing top-notch services and opportunities to our members. We have strived to keep this increase minimal, mindful of its impact on you.
